Beef Tallow

- Beef Tallow is rich in fatty acids which closely resemble the natural oils found in our skin and makes for an amazing moisturizer.

- Beef Tallow contains anti-inflammatory compounds that help soothe and reduce redness. This is beneficial for sensitive skin and/or irritated skin conditions.

- Beef Tallow offers antioxidant protection. Tallow is a great source of vitamins A, D, and E which help protect the skin from free radical damage.

- Beef Tallow is known to improve elasticity which reduces signs of fine lines and wrinkles.

- Beef Tallow has been known to reduce acne. Tallow is low comedogenic which means it is not likely to clog pores and can help regulate oil production and reduce breakouts.

Jojoba Oil

- Jojoba Oil is a humectant and attracts water to the top layer of the skin, helping to keep the skin hydrated.
- Jojoba Oil is similar in composition to the skins natural oils, making an excellent moisturizer.
- Jojoba Oil contains anti-microbial and anti-fungal properties.
- Jojoba Oil is non-comedogenic, which is known to not clog your pores.
- Jojoba Oil is an antioxidant that is rich in vitamin E. The antioxidants in Jojoba Oil also promote collagen synthesis and reduce fine lines and wrinkles.
- Jojoba Oil protects the skin from free radical damage.
- Jojoba Oil is hypo-allergenic.
- Jojoba Oil helps control sebum production.

Shea Butter

- Shea Butter is rich in fatty acids, which help provide long-lasting hydration.
- Shea Butter contains anti-inflammatory properties. The cinnamic acid esters in shea butter helps reduce redness, irritation, and swelling.
- Shea Butter offers skin barrier protection by strengthening the skins natural barrier.

- Shea Butter is rich in antioxidants such as vitamin A and E.
- Jojoba Oil is an antioxidant that is rich in vitamin E. The antioxidants in Jojoba Oil also promote collagen synthesis and reduce fine lines and wrinkles.
- Jojoba Oil protects the skin from free radical damage.
- Jojoba Oil is hypo-allergenic.
- Jojoba Oil helps control sebum production.

Calendula Oil

- Calendula Oil is known for its ability to promote healing in minor cuts, scrapes, and burns.
- Calendula Oil has anti-inflammatory properties that help reduce swelling and redness.
- Calendula oil has anti-bacterial properties. Studies have shown that Calendula can potentially increase the healing process by increasing the production of granulation tissue, which is essential for skin repair.
- Calendula Oil can potentially help calm various skin conditions, providing relief from itching and discomfort.
- Calendula oil hydrates dry skin and helps maintain the skins barrier.
- Calendula Oil may help reduce the appearance of fine lines and wrinkles by promoting collagen production.
- Calendula Oil has anti-microbial properties that can help with protecting the skin from infections.

Chamomile Oil

- Chamomile Oil is known for its ability to reduce inflammation and reduce redness.
- Chamomile Oil is rich in antioxidants and helps protect the skin from free radicals. The presence of compounds like apigenin contributes to its ability to maintain radiant skin.
- Chamomile Oil has moisturizing properties that helps keep the skin hydrated.
- Chamomile Oil is gentle and can be used on sensitive skin.
- Chamomile Oil contains both anti-bacterial and anti-fungal properties, which can help protect the skin from infection and promote healing.
- Chamomile Oil may potentially help with accelerating the healing process, some studies have shown.

Cedarwood Oil

- Cedarwood Oil has anti-inflammatory benefits that may help soothe redness and irritation.
- Cedarwood Oil may help aid in treating infections and cleaning abrasions.
- Cedarwood Oil has antiseptic qualities that may help reduce the risk of infections and promote skin healing.
- Cedarwood Oil can potentially help sebum production regulation.